So Pigletté has a boyfriend.

The End

On a cold, crisp day in February, Pigletté heads off for Camp with UncleMarkie.

It is a gathering of the Northwest Radical Faeries. Pigletté shares a cabin with Phoenix and Brandon.

After many hours on the road, Pigletté and BOBO are finally home and ready for bed.

After an exhausting weekend, Pigletté and BOBO head back to Seattle in Uncle Markie's mommy-van.

This is Peter. Peter likes Pigletté. Peter's boyfriend used to live with Pigletté, so they feel like old pals.

Pigletté meets a friend of Dancing Dragon soaking at the Meadow Pools. His name is BoBo.

Pigletté and BoBo
start to become very friendly.
Very friendly indeed.

Later, Pigletté settles down with BoBo in their cabin-mate's bed. This bed is bigger than Piglettés.

Pigletté and BoBo are startled by a deer foraging for food. Can you find the deer in this picture?

of the silly deer
that startled the boys.

Price, Banyon Crow, Pigletté, BoBo, and Mick are really enjoying the show.

Pigletté, BoBo, and UncleMarkie sit with Mick for the performances.
Doesn't Mick look cute in overalls?

BoBo introduces Pigletté
to his brother Sammi.
Can you see the family resemblance?

All three boys are hanging out at the Faerie Bazaar, featuring the work of Dancing Dragon.

Time for Pigletté and BOBO
to head off to the talent show.
Some of these faeries have real talent!
